REPORT

—OF THE—

Superintending School Committee.

The School Committee would give the following report for the year 1884-5.

DISTRICT NO. I.

CYRUS THOMPSON, Prudential Committee.

Summer term was taught by Miss Zilpha M. Cutting, of Newport. This was the third successive term for Miss Cutting in this school, and if anything, was rather the best of the three. The scholars made rapid advancement and the attendance was about the usual average. The roll of honor is long—the longest for any term in town this year

ROLL OF HONOR: Ada Lewis, Susie Walker, Emma M. Goss, Carrie A. Hook, Blanche Morse, Zella M. Morse, Lucinda Hammond, Florence Dunbar, Helen Dunbar, Jennie Nelson, Etta Nelson, Villa Hall, Earl Hall, Elwin Walker, George Nelson, Daniel Chase, Hial Nelson, Grovenor Bowers, George Colby, Harry Colby, Arthur Jenks—22. Absent on account of sickness: Annie Hurd.

The above term began April 21st and closed June 27th, 1884.

The winter term began Oct. 6th and closed Dec. 23rd, 1884. This term was taught by Miss Sophia Pike, of Newport, who came to us very highly recommended as a teacher of long experience and success, having taught over forty terms of school. Your committee visited Miss Pike's school five times, and after mature deliberation is obliged to confess that her methods of instruction were superior. We are sorry to record the fact that some trouble arose during the term about the school, but continued visits and careful inquiry of the scholars who continued through the term failed to establish that the order in the school, certainly after the first few days, was any worse than the average for such a school. The trouble seems to have been caused by misunderstandings which arose from some misconduct on the part of some of the scholars the first of the term. Some of the flying rumors about this school were not substantial enough to be worthy of belief. The average attendance was 29, which was large considering the circumstances. The closing examination was excellent, as all present must testify.

ROLL OF HONOR: Ada Lewis, Lucinda Hammond, Alice Hammond, Grovenor Bowers, Daniel Chase, William Thornton. The first five of these were not absent or tardy during the year.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

LUCIAN CHASE, Prudential Committee.

The summer and fall terms of this school were taught as usual by Mrs. Susan G. Stocker, who has kept a number of successive terms here. This teacher is too well known in town to need any special commendation. Extra attention was given both terms to singing. It is to be desired that more work of this kind should be done in our schools. The scholars in this district sing well, and we hope they will long have the privilege of receiving the instruction of such a teacher.

ROLL OF HONOR: Summer term—Mamie V. Currier, Etta B. Chase, Ethel M. Chase, Albert A. Stocker, Jerome J. Gault, Irwin Spiller. Fall term—Lena F. Buswell, Laura A. Nichols, Mamie V. Currier, Etta B. Chase, Ethel M. Chase, Albert A. Stocker, Wesley D. Currier, Udo I. Currier, Curtis J. Nichols. The first four are on both rolls.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

AARON L. BROWN, Prudential Committee.

The summer and winter terms were taught by Miss Sarah E.

Clough, with fine success. In the winter term large classes in History, Physiology and Language Lessons were formed, and considerable enthusiasm was manifested in these studies. Special instruction was given the whole school in Hygiene, including special reference to the effects of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics upon the human system.

ROLL OF HONOR: Summer term—Ina Austin, Bertha Saunders, Guy Buswell, Frank L. Hardy, Burleigh Hastings, Van Hastings, Silas Newell. Absent on account of sickness, Josie Newell, Lena Buswell, Florence Hastings. Winter term—Lena Buswell, Edna Hastings, Florence Hastings, Amanda Little, Mary Miller, Velzora Merrill, Josie Newell, Bertha Saunders, Imla Brown, Guy Buswell, Ora Hastings, Arthur Hastings, Frank L. Hardy, Carl Howe, Loren Miller, Silas Newell. Absent one day only, but not tardy, Blanche G. Hardy, Carrie Newell, Archie Brown, Burleigh Hastings, Reuben Pinney. Bertha Saunders, Guy H. Buswell, Frank L. Hardy and Silas Newell were neither absent nor tardy during the year.

The winter term of this school was, in the judgment of your Committee, the best in town, and the closing examination was excellent.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

JOHN E. CORLISS, Prudential Committee.

Only one term of ten weeks was held in this district. It began Aug. 11th and closed Oct. 29th, 1884, and was taught by Miss Mary E. Currier, who was the teacher the previous year. The scholars made remarkable progress. A gloom was cast over this school towards the end of the term by the accidental death of Georgie Hatch, aged 6, one of the scholars, who was killed one day at recess by the fall of a cart body upon him. The closing examination was very good. There was only one in this school on the roll of honor—Ina M. Corliss. This school, although small in numbers, did good work, and the teacher deserves praise for her efforts.

DISTRICT NO. 5.

HORACE GREEN, Prudential Committee.

One term only in this school, taught by Miss Sarah H. Rollins. This term began Oct. 6th, and closed Nov. 21st, 1884. This was Miss R's first term of teaching, and she evidently tried hard to help those under her care. Had all her scholars assisted the teacher, her success would have been better. As it was, most of the pupils made advancement.

Absent only one day, Ralph Howard.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

C. C. THORNTON, Prudential Committee.

No school in this district. The scholars attended out of district. In Nov. the town voted to unite Nos. 5 and 6, but this union has not yet been consummated.

DISTRICT NO. 10.

OSCAR EASTMAN, Prudential Committee.

The summer term was taught by Miss Stella M. Baker, of Goshen, and the winter term by Miss Nellie Barton, of Newport. The teacher of the winter term refused to fill out the register for Grantham, and our scholars were all the year denied the privilege of pursuing any of the higher studies. We would suggest that measures be taken to find out where this district belongs, and to insure for our scholars a fair chance to progress in their studies. Either this district should be considered as partly in our care, or that part of it belonging to us should be joined with some other district in town. A settlement of this case is of importance for our benefit in time to come.

REMARKS AND ADVICE.

In accordance with the new law passed by our legislature at its last session, in June, 1883, introducing the study of Hygiene and Temperance into our public schools, copies of a little book by Miss Julia Colman on Alcohol and Hygiene have been distributed and used in all our schools during the past year, and with good success. Some copies of a larger work on the same subject by Mills have been studied by the older scholars.

Your Superintendent has power only as the law gives it to him. He cannot dismiss a teacher where there is a division in the district without a petition signed by a majority of the legal voters in the district for a hearing, said hearing to be held after due notice to all parties concerned. In case any trouble, real or fancied, arises, it is better to remove the cause of the trouble rather than take our children from the schools. Let parents and citizens all assist the teachers and Superintendent in advancing the interests of our schools.

It seems more and more evident that our smaller schools should be united with the larger, that the terms may be lengthened and our school money be used to better advantage. We certainly ought to have no less than two nor more than four schools in town, where we now have seven districts, in whole or in part. Let this matter receive immediate attention.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. HARDY,

Superintending School Committee.

Grantham, Mar. 2, 1885.
